

Please heed the desire of your constituency to preserve the long standing tradition of diversity in information dissemination. Media outlet ownership should remain restricted to ensure local input and to more accurately represent the spectrum of public interest and opinion.